The nomination of Hearst will be a good thing in one respect. It will at least enable the people of New York to show what they think of him.

BURGLARS have made use of the motor car on various occasions, and now it has been employed in a case of alleged kidnapping. The moral descent of the automobile is becoming alarming. It calls for the emergency brake.—New York World.

If Uncle Joe Cannon would like to engage in a simon pure stand pat fight he should go down to Arizona and take a hand in grilling about joint surety.—Portland Telegram.

A Nodder who declared that all the nominees of his party were good men and afterwards found out that one candidate was a woman, squared himself with his readers and his conscience by the corrected statement. That all were good men but one."
